Great Invitations!

Isaiah 43: 15ff.

God is an inviting God and His people an inviting people!

God invites us because it honors us with a choice.

When we invite someone to come to Jesus or His church there is an element of honor and love.

Any invitation from God is an invitation into relationship.

Any invitation from God is an invitation into relationship.

God invites us to do new things in new ways!