

Kingdom Mischief!
Ruth 3: 1ff

Providence is God's planned path whose provision we usually have to be awakened to.

God's providence lands us with Him in a place of His choosing and a people of His choosing.

Ruth discovers a way to honor the adventure that is God's adventure.

Mischief is that human quality that walks the line between what is appropriate and what is not for sake of endearment.

Ruth is passionate toward the person of her redeemer above his provision.

Ruth makes plenty of room to be wrong in pursuit of her passion.

Ruth discerns the value of character over charisma.

Ruth knows just who has the power to save and who does not.

- Questions for reflection!
- What does Kingdom security look like for us? Is the passionate life with Jesus along with His place for us and His people for us a measure of our security?
- What flirtations in our lives need to be let go of and which ones need to consummated for Kingdom purposes?
- What relationships and situations have we given ourselves to that have no power to save?
- Do we feel free to ask to be blessed beyond what we simply need?
