

Going Back to the Future!
John 21: 15ff.

God gives us seasons, points of reference to show us that we have grown.

Jesus takes us back to the beginning to discover that we are sometimes blind to our own growth.

It's essential that a revival of the power of God be ignited by a revival of the love of God.

The commitment to self-denial . . . “You will stretch out your hands.”

The commitment to mature . . . “When you are old . . . “

The commitment to lose our identity in Jesus . . . “Someone else will dress you.”

The commitment to submit . . . “Someone else will lead you.”

The commitment to mission . . . “You will go where you do not wish to go.”
