

Honoring Authority!
John 18:33ff

We honor God's love by honoring authority.

“Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.”
Romans 13:1

“Honoring authority allows God’s autograph of love to be written into our lives.”

Questioning or challenging authority, in love, can be honoring of authority.

Authority is the legal and moral right to exercise power.

The toxic climate of dishonor in our nation is, in part, the consequence of erasing God and His love from how Christians honor.
