

Greater Expectations

“Our prayers prevail because our King intercedes!”

Romans 8:31-39, Hebrews 7:25

Romans 8:31, 32

If God is for us, who can be against us?

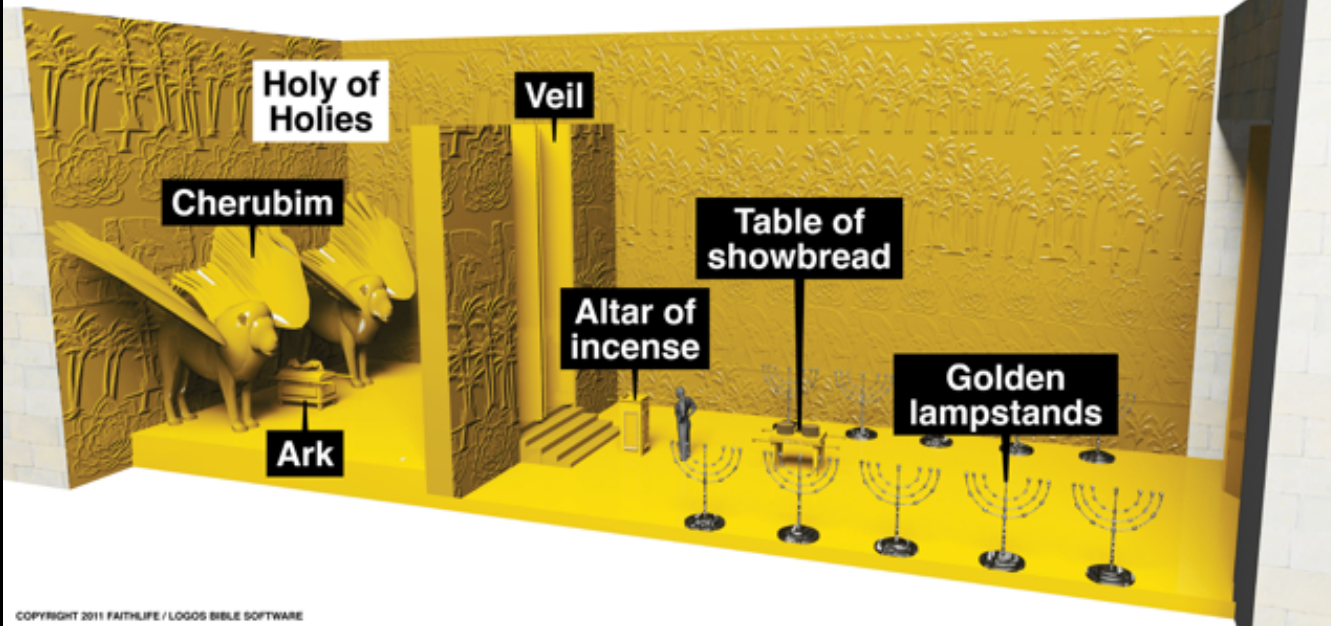

He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?

Romans 8:33,34

Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.

The Holy of Holies

Whereas Jesus' crucifixion, resurrection and ascension happened once, His role as our high priest is ongoing.

Jesus' finished work on calvary and His intercession in heaven provides not only salvation, but everything needed to fulfill God's purpose in our lives here.

Romans 8:35, 37

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or danger, or sword?
No, in all these things we are more than conquerors
through him who loved us!

Romans 8:38, 39

For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The darkest circumstances known to man become the backdrop to perfectly contrast the brilliance of a life who overwhelmingly conquers through Jesus.

Boldness to enter His presence is the highest form of confidence because it's origin is not from us. It completely depends upon Him.

Jesus takes our feeble attempts at prayer and presents them to the Father perfectly because He knows our heart.

“True prayer is neither a mere mental exercise nor a vocal performance. It is far deeper than that. It is a spiritual transaction with the Creator of heaven and earth.”

–Charles Spurgeon

“Faith expects from God what is beyond all expectations.”

–Andrew Murray
