

The Refuge of Predictability!
Isaiah 43:16ff

God is the unchanged changer!

We can't thrive on yesterday's faith.

God is a creative God who loves making new ways from old ways.

It is possible for God to move us into something new without us perceiving it.

The greatest obstacle to seeing what God is doing now is being ensnared in what He did before.

God desires a people who are demonstrative at His everchanging goodness and power.
