

Heartbreaker

“Grieve not the Holy Spirit”

Ephesians 4 vs 30

“And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.”

Our capacity to grieve someone is proportionate to the level of their love for us.

Breaking a Command or Breaking a Heart?

- When we grieve the Holy Spirit we put a strain on that relationship
- Our instinctive reaction then is to hide and pull away
- The Holy Spirit desires us to draw near!

If we have grieved the Holy Spirit

- The wrong response – King Saul
- The right response – King David

Here and Now – the Holy Spirit's Focus

- Breaking fellowship between believers
- Believers breaking apart from the Body of Christ
- Sowing seeds of discord or dissension

Pleasing the Holy Spirit

- Working to restore unity and relationships
- Honoring, serving and caring for the Body of Christ
- Spreading good reports!!
