

Impelling Grace!
Romans 6:1 ff.

Baptism offers impelling daily grace for us to live within our standing of redemption.

In baptism I no longer confess my sin so that the Father forgives me. I confess my sin because I am forgiven.

In Baptism I do not “die to myself” rather my old self becomes dead and buried with the sinless One!

In Baptism my new self now walks on the ground of resurrection and its power.