

Behold the King!

John 1:1-5, 14, 43-46

“Behold the King”— intellectually and spiritually perceive who Jesus is and what He has done.

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:2-3

He was with God in the beginning. All things were created through Him, and apart from Him not one thing was created that has been created.

John 1:4-5

Life was in Him, and that life was the light of men.
That light shines in the darkness, yet the darkness
did not overcome it.

John 1:14

The Word became flesh and took up residence among us.
We observed His glory, the glory as the One and Only
Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:43-45

The next day He decided to leave for Galilee. Jesus found Philip and told him, "Follow Me!"

Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the hometown of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the One Moses wrote about in the Law (and so did the prophets): Jesus the son of Joseph, from Nazareth!"

John 1:46

“Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Nathanael asked him.

“Come and see,” Philip answered.

“In faith there is enough light for those who want to believe and enough shadows to blind those who don’t.”

–Blaise Pascal

“Who do you say I am?”

The ultimate goal of apologetics is not about winning an argument, but rather inviting others to “come and see” Jesus for themselves.

“The Christian gospel is that I am so flawed that Jesus had to die for me, yet I am so loved and valued that Jesus was glad to die for me.”

–Tim Keller
