

“The Beautiful Exchange”

Isaiah 61:1-3

Freedom in Christ:

Accepting His sacrifice that paid my debt and set me free from the bondage of sin—not to do whatever I want, but to do what I ought through the power of the Holy Spirit within me.

“The Gospel is news of what God has done to reach us. It is not advice about what we must do to reach God.”

—Tim Keller

The clothing God provides always speaks to how our lives are meant to reveal the very nature of God Himself.

Our praise is a protection from condemnation as well as a celebration that we no longer have to mourn our sin because the suffering servant has covered it.
